

I would hope that you would follow indiana no call law closely. It works we are not bothered by telemarketing calls at all anymore. Yet we can still receive call for none profit organizations. I do not want my phone, credit card a window salesmen calling me during the day or in the evening when I am spending an evening with my family.